

MEDIA POLICY

The Executive Library Director manages and responds to media inquiries delegating appropriate duties to staff. All efforts to contact or respond to the media are the responsibility of the Executive Library Director. The Library's Board President is the authorized board media spokesperson. Trustees have a responsibility in any media encounter of emphasizing that they are speaking as an individual and not for the organization or the Board. Trustees may share or verify matters of public record.